Ali Love

Ali Love is an English singer, songwriter, musician and record producer. His first singles came out in 2006 on I ♥ Records, followed by releases on Columbia; "Secret Sunday Lover" reached No. 45 on the UK Singles Chart in 2007. That same year he sang on and co-wrote The Chemical Brothers' "Do It Again", a UK No. 12 and UK Dance No. 1, later nominated for Best Dance Recording at the 50th Grammy Awards.

He went on to release the albums Love Harder (Back Yard Recordings, 2010) and P.U.M.P. (Crosstown Rebels, 2014); Resident Advisor called the latter "rarely less than entertaining". As a member of Hot Natured, alongside Jamie Jones, Lee Foss and Luca Cazal, he played the band's first-ever gig at Brixton Academy in April 2013 and appears on "Benediction", a UK Top 40 single. With Luca Cazal he forms Infinity Ink.

His collaborations include Justice, Róisín Murphy, CamelPhat and Keinemusik. "Confusion" (2021), written and produced with Keinemusik's &ME, Rampa and Adam Port, was Pete Tong's Essential New Tune on BBC Radio 1, and Drake premiered a cover of it in 2022. In December 2024 Ali Love was a guest vocalist on the nine-date Pete Tong Presents Ibiza Classics arena tour. His 2026 releases include "Freaky 1" with Max Styler and Vintage Culture.

Ali Love

Ali Love is an English singer, songwriter, musician and record producer. His first records came out in 2006 on I ♥ Records — the 7" “K Hole / Video Dream Girl” and the Camera On A Pole EP — followed by releases with Columbia. In 2007 “Secret Sunday Lover” reached No. 45 on the UK Singles Chart and “Late Night Session” No. 10 on the UK Dance Singles Chart.

The same year he sang on and co-wrote The Chemical Brothers’ “Do It Again”, the lead single from We Are the Night. It reached No. 12 on the UK Singles Chart and No. 1 on the UK Dance Singles Chart, and was nominated for Best Dance Recording at the 50th Grammy Awards. He returned to The Chemical Brothers in 2015 with “EML Ritual” on Born in the Echoes, again as singer and co-writer. In the studio he has also played guitar and bass for others, on Just Jack’s Overtones and on UNKLE’s “Broken”.

His solo albums include Love Harder (Back Yard Recordings, 2010) and P.U.M.P. (Crosstown Rebels, 2014). Resident Advisor found the latter “rarely less than entertaining”.

Two groups carry much of his story. With Jamie Jones, Lee Foss and Luca Cazal he is a member of Hot Natured: “Forward Motion” (2011) was the group’s first release on Hot Creations, “Benediction” (2012) reached No. 40 on the UK Singles Chart and No. 2 on the UK Independent Singles Chart, and the band played its first-ever gig at Brixton Academy in April 2013. Their album Different Sides of the Sun reached No. 44 on the UK Albums Chart that year, and Hot Natured were billed for Coachella in 2015. With Luca Cazal he forms Infinity Ink, whose “Infinity” (Crosstown Rebels, 2012) was later sampled in Flo Rida’s “Can’t Believe It”; their album House of Infinity followed in 2019.

His voice runs through collaborations with Justice (“Civilization”, 2011), Róisín Murphy (“Jacuzzi Rollercoaster”, 2018), CamelPhat (“Dopamine Machine”, 2018; “Spektrum”, 2020; “Compute”, 2023), Felix Da Housecat, William Orbit and Steve Bug. The Vinyl Factory has described him as “one of London’s most inventive and unpredictable voices in dance music over the last decade”. “Confusion” (2021), written and produced with Keinemusik’s &ME, Rampa and Adam Port, was Pete Tong’s Essential New Tune on BBC Radio 1, and Drake premiered a cover of the song on his SiriusXM show in June 2022.

In December 2024 Ali Love was a guest vocalist on Pete Tong Presents Ibiza Classics with Jules Buckley and The Essential Orchestra, a nine-date UK arena tour that included The O2 in London. Recent releases include “Keep the Love Alive” with Arthur Baker (2025), “Freaky 1” with Max Styler and Vintage Culture (2026) and “My Only Crime” with Bedouin and Nandu (2026).
